Traffic? You got the wrong idea. Bansk.com has huge potential, possibly higher than Banks.com. Same reason why Lyft is not using lift.com. Anyway, if $10k is a compelling offer then you are wasting my time and there is no reason to continue. I was simply curious what was their offer.

Thanks,

Hi Philip,

Thanks for your prompt reply. Obviously, my client does not want to engage in protracted back and forth on price. It just seemed apparent from the traffic patterns that Bansk.com was not driving much traffic for your company. Is there a price you are looking for that we can consider?

Best regards,

Hi Philip,

Thanks for your prompt response. GoDaddy and EstiBot have the domain valued at around $4000. My client is willing to offer $10,000 to compensate for your time. Let me know if that works for you.

Best regards,

Hi David,

The domain Bansk.com is currently not for sale.
If your client has a compelling offer we'd love to hear it.

Thanks,

Mr. Ancevski,

I represent a party that is interested in acquiring the banks.com domain name. Based on the whois records, I believe SiteTools currently owns this domain. Kindly let me know if your company would be willing to sell this domain, and if so, what your asking price is.

Best regards,
